St. John the Evangelist Pro-Life Initiative

"At the dawn of salvation, it is the birth of a child which is proclaimed as joyful news: "I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord" (Lk 2:10-11). The source of this "great joy" is the birth of the Savior; but Christmas also reveals the full meaning of every human birth, and the joy which accompanies the birth of the Messiah is thus seen to be the foundation and fulfillment of joy at every child born into the world (cf. Jn 16:21)." The Gospel of Life St. John Paul II

CROSS ROADS

By Deacon Tony

Sirach 3: 2-6, 12-14; Psalm 128: 1-5;

Colossians 3: 12-17; Luke 2: 41-52

It is fitting during the Christmas season that we reflect on the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph; and to be able to do so the day after Christmas enhances the experience. Yesterday we celebrated the Nativity of Jesus, the birth of our Savior. It was a supreme act of God out of His unconditional love for us, to humble himself to live with us through Jesus. In the past God communicated to us through the prophets; but now he would speak to us, and have us know him better, to lovingly teach and admonish us directly through Jesus. We are to emulate that kind of love in our families. To bring the peace of God into our families, we are to walk in God's ways, to lovingly teach, and admonish one another with respect, husband and wife toward each other, parents toward their children, and children toward their parents.

The family is a microcosm of the Church. As the Church is one body made of living stones, so are our families. Saint Paul told the Colossians to act as God's chosen ones, with forgiveness, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, and to teach and admonish one another with those virtues. Saint Paul was speaking about the Church. But Saint Paul's advice is equally applicable to our families. It all starts there. It takes a family. That is why those who hate Christianity and the Church attack the family and traditional family values.

The Holy Family is the perfect example for us to emulate. In today's gospel we see Mary and Joseph frantically trying to find Jesus who stayed at the Temple, his Father's house, to ask questions, and to teach, to the amazement of those listening, and to the amazement of Mary and Joseph. Mother and father together looking for their child, finding him after three days. And when it was time to go home to Nazareth, the Son of God, God With Us, obediently went home. "And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man." Such is the purpose and goal of family and Church, to help each other advance in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

Open wide your door to the one who comes. Open your soul, throw open the depths of your heart to see the riches of simplicity, the treasures of peace, the sweetness of grace. Open your heart and run to meet the Sun of eternal light that illuminates all.

—St. Ambrose of Milan
